

Mikołaj Handschke

Graduated from the Poznań University of Economics and Business with a degree in finance and banking. He holds a doctorate in economics. Author of publications on the processes of economic transformation (capital market, labour market, systemic transformations). For the last twenty years he has been associated with the University of Economics in Poznań as a lecturer and member of the Council of the Faculty of Economics. Winner of several awards of the Minister of National Education and Sport and the Rector of the Poznań University of Economics and Business for original and creative research achievements. He cooperates, as an academic teacher, with a number of higher educational institutions, in the area of macro and microeconomics and managerial economics. In the period 2016-2017 he was a member of the Supervisory Board of Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A., where he was a member of the Audit Committee and the Chairman of the Strategy Committee. From 2017, a member of the Supervisory Board of Alior Bank S. A., in which he is a member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Risk Committee and the Bank's Strategy and Development Committee.