

Mirosław Czekaj

Mirosław Czekaj has extensive experience of nearly 30 years in managing large business entities, including banks and financial institutions.

From 1996 to 1997, he was a member of the Supervisory Board of Pomorski Bank Kredytowy in Szczecin.

From 2004 to 2006, he was vice-president of Bank Gospodarstwa Krajowego, overseeing the bank's commercial activities, cooperation with commercial customers and local authorities and the management of the branch network.

From 2009 to 2016, he was Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board of PKO Bank Polski and Chairman of the Audit Committee at the bank, where he oversaw, among other things, the financial reporting process, internal audit, risk management, compliance management and external audit.

He has been chairman or member of supervisory boards on a number of occasions, including Miejskie Zakłady Autobusowe, Metro Warszawskie, Miejskie Przedsiębiorstwo Taksówkowe and the Narodowy Fundusz Ochrony Środowiska i Gospodarki Wodnej.

From January 2007 to April 2024, Mirosław Czekaj served as Treasurer of the City of Warsaw, where he was responsible for, among other things, financial management and policy, consolidated reporting of more than 1,000 entities, taxation and accounting. He was also responsible for debt, liquidity and financial risk management, including securities issues and cooperation with international financial institutions, banks, rating agencies and auditors.

Mirosław Czekaj, Ph.D. (Post-doctoral degree) is an assistant professor at the College of Business Science, where he specialises in scientific issues relating in particular to public finance, including budget planning and financial reporting. He is the author of dozens of publications on these topics in national and international scientific journals.

Mirosław Czekaj is a chartered accountant No 8476.

Marta Postuła

Prof. dr. hab. Marta Postuła, has been an advisor to the Board of Directors for Sustainable Development at the Brokerage House of Bank Ochrony Środowiska since 2022. Prior to that, she was a head of the Issuer Relations Department at the same institution for six years.

She has several years of experience working in the public sector. From 1999 to 2016, she worked at the Ministry of Finance, where she headed departments responsible for, among other things: the creation of strategic documents and coordination of activities related to the development of the Act on Public Finance, the implementation of socio-economic policies of governments, and the assessment of the efficiency of public spending in the public sector.

She has served on the supervisory boards of, among others, BGK, PL2012, Intercity and SKM. Since 2020, she has been Head of the Department of Finance and Accounting at the Faculty of Management of the University of Warsaw. From 2016 to 2023, she served as director of the UW Entrepreneurship Centre.

Since 2020, she has been a full professor of social sciences, a title she received from the President of the Republic of Poland. She holds a postdoctoral degree in economics in the discipline of finance, as well as a PhD in economics from the Warsaw School of Economics.

She is the author of numerous book publications and articles in the field of finance, particularly in the areas of public finance and investment finance.