Source: Company, DM BOŚ SA estimates

2Q24 consolidated revenues at PLN 124 million (up 35% yoy) exceeded our forecast at PLN 114 million by 9%; a yoy growth stemmed from higher volumes coupled with higher pricing of NFZ-reimbursed diagnostic services and more realized projects at Alteris.

The Group's 2Q24 EBIT hit PLN 31 million (up 18% yoy). The EBIT margin fell yoy and reached 25% in 2Q24. The Group's SG&A costs went up by 18% yoy.

Net financial costs fell down 10% yoy to PLN 2.2 million. The Group's NI for the parent company reached PLN 23 million beating our expectations by 13%. The Group's adj NI on continued operations at PLN 24 million was in line with our expectations.

In the discussed period the Group recognized a PLN 1 million one-off (disposal of fixed assets with costs of their liquidation (medical equipment replacement)) while we assumed PLN 4 million, similarly as in 1Q24.

The Group's operating/ investing cash flows reached PLN 15 million/ -11 million vs PLN 18/ -2 million in 2Q23. At the end of 2Q24 net debt reached PLN 78 million (down 18% yoy).

Expectations for the coming quarters/Forecasts

In 2024 the Company expects higher volumes of diagnostic tests performed and higher revenues than last year. It is expected that an increase of pricing of NFZ-reimbursed services (CT and MRI scan pricing going up by c. 4% and PET/ SPECT scans pricing up by c. 6%/ 4-6% on average vs 1H24) from July 1, 2024 will impact the Company's results. The pricing of commercial services was raised as well.

On the cost side we expect to see a rise of wages costs (pertaining to the medical staff employed by and cooperating with the Group) to be introduced from the end of 3Q24 or in 4Q24. A growth of electrical energy costs is expected from 2025 due to a removal of a price cap for sensitive entities.

The estimated backlog of Alteris for this year was raised to PLN 100 million from PLN 85 million; last year in March it was assumed at PLN 70 million for 2023 while FY23 sales reached PLN 102 million.

We maintain our forecasts for FY24 which we consider conservative. After 1H24 the realization of our FY adj EBITDA forecast reached 48% vs 45% in 1H23. This year the second half should be better than the first one due to higher prices of diagnostic services and seasonally stronger 4Q in Alteris.

Risk factors

1. Lower public spending on health care (high exposure to NFZ)
2. Medical services pricing increase too low
3. Change in the State's policy regarding private medical contractors
4. Changes in the Company's contracts with NFZ
5. Changes in legislation regarding the funding of hospitals/ treatments
6. Falling affluence of the society
7. New innovative methods of cancer diagnostics/ treatment
8. Medical errors - reputation risk
9. Low and deteriorating availability of radiologists
10. Loss/low labor supply
11. Salary pressure (in particular of medical and IT staff)
12. Overblown investments
13. Lagging behind the technological progress in diagnostics

Catalysts

1. Aging society
2. A number of diagnostic imaging scans in Poland below the standards in developed countries
3. Medical services pricing increase
4. Development of the market of private medical services
5. Improvement of the treatment mix (towards more advanced)
6. New medical services offered
7. Development of the segment of pharmaceutical research (clinical trials)
8. Organic growth, new centers (high barriers to entry)
9. Acquisitions – economies of scale
10. Consolidation of the sector; potential acquisition target
11. AI development and new algorithms for test descriptions
12. IT software development for cloud diagnostics

DM BOŚ S.A. generally values the covered non bank companies via two methods: comparative method and DCF method (discounted cash flows). The advantage of the former is the fact that it incorporates the current market assessment of the value of the company's peers. The weakness of the comparative method is the risk that the valuation benchmark may be mispriced. The advantage of the DCF method is its independence from the current market valuation of the comparable companies. The weakness of this method is its high sensitivity to undertaken assumptions, especially those related to the residual value calculation. Please note that we also resort to other valuation techniques (e.g. NAV-, DDM- or SOTP-based), should it prove appropriate in a given case.

KEY TO INVESTMENT RANKINGS

This is a guide to expected price performance in absolute terms over the next 12 months:

Buy – fundamentally undervalued (upside to 12M EFV in excess of the cost of equity) + catalysts which should close the valuation gap identified;
Hold – either (i) fairly priced, or (ii) fundamentally undervalued/overvalued but lacks catalysts which could close the valuation gap;
Sell – fundamentally overvalued (12M EFV < current share price + 1-year cost of equity) + catalysts which should close the valuation gap identified.

This is a guide to expected relative price performance:

Overweight – expected to perform better than the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms
Neutral – expected to perform in line with the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms
Underweight – expected to perform worse than the benchmark (WIG) over the next quarter in relative terms

The recommendation tracker presents the performance of DM BOŚ S.A.'s recommendations. A recommendation expires on the day it is altered or on the day 12 months after its issuance, whichever comes first. Relative performance compares the rate of return on a given recommended stock in the period of the recommendation's validity (i.e. from the date of issuance to the date of alteration or – in case of maintained recommendations – from the date of issuance to the current date) in a relation to the rate of return on the benchmark in this time period. The WIG index constitutes the benchmark. For recommendations that expire by an alteration or are maintained, the ending values used to calculate their absolute and relative performance are: the stock closing price on the day the recommendation expires/ is maintained and the closing value of the benchmark on that date. For recommendations that expire via a passage of time, the ending values used to calculate their absolute and relative performance are: the average of the stock closing prices for the day the recommendation elapses and four directly preceding sessions and the average of the benchmark's closing values for the day the recommendation expires and four directly preceding sessions.

Net Interest Margin (NIM) = net interest income/average assets
Non interest income = fees&commissions + result on financial operations (trading gains) + FX gains
Interest Spread = (interest income/average interest earning assets)/(interest cost/average interest bearing liabilities)
Cost/Income = (general costs + depreciation)/(profit on banking activity + other net operating income)
ROE = net profit/average equity
ROA = net income/average assets
Non performing loans (NPL) = loans in 'basket 3' category
NPL coverage ratio = loan loss provisions/NPL
Net provision charge = provisions created – provisions released

DM BOŚ S.A. generally values the covered banks via two methods: comparative method and fundamental target fair P/E and target fair P/BV multiples method. The advantage of the former is the fact that it incorporates the current market assessment of the value of the company's peers. The weakness of the comparative method is the risk that the valuation benchmark may be mispriced. The advantage of the fundamental target fair P/E and target fair P/BV multiples method is its independence of the current market valuation of the comparable companies. The weakness of this method is its high sensitivity to undertaken assumptions, especially those related to the residual value calculation. Assumptions used in valuation can change, influencing thereby the level of the valuation. Among the most important assumptions are: GDP growth, forecasted level of inflation, changes in interest rates and currency prices, employment level and change in wages, demand on the analysed company products, raw material prices, competition, standing of the main customers and suppliers, legislation changes, etc. Changes in the environment of the analysed company are monitored by analysts involved in the preparation of the recommendation, estimated, incorporated in valuation and published in the recommendation whenever needed.
